Advanced Placement Exam Procedures

- Students should report to their testing site (see posted schedule) between 10 and 15 minutes prior to the start of their exam. Students testing at MCPHS should wait in the atrium area just inside the Palace Rd. entrance to MCPHS and await further instructions.

- Boston Latin School students do not need to report to homeroom or any classes on their AP testing day. BLS students will be marked CP for their testing day.

- Non-BLS students testing at Boston Latin School should report to testing rooms. 014 & 016) are on the ground floor across the corridor from the library.

- Students should bring o a photo ID to the testing room for identification purposes o non-BLS students must present their photo ID to proctors prior to testing o pencils, pens, erasers and calculators (if permitted) o a watch for timing purposes (there will be a working clock in the exam room) o a snack / drink for the break

- Students should not bring o Cellphones, cameras, laptops or any devices that access the internet o Ipods, MP3 players, portable game consoles or any other electronic device prohibited by the College Board o Unapproved aids: Books, compasses, protractors, mechanical pencils, correction fluid, dictionaries, highlighters, notes or colored pencils o Rulers, straightedges and protractors (except students taking the AP Physics Exams) o Scratch paper; notes can be made on portions of the exam booklets or, for Chinese Language and Culture and Japanese Language and Culture, on scratch paper provided by the proctor o Watches that beep or have an alarm, or smart watches.
  o Computers (except as noted for students with disabilities) or calculators (except students taking the AP Biology, Calculus AB, Calculus BC, Chemistry, Physics, or Statistics Exams). Visit the most current lists of AP-approved graphing calculators on The College Board student site https://professionals.collegeboard.org/testing/ap/test-day/calculators o Reference guides, keyboard maps or other typing instructions o Clothing with subject-related information

- Students in possession of prohibited electronic devices will be reported to the College Board and have their scores cancelled.

Contact Mr. Kennelly at tkennelly@bostonpublicschools.org with any additional questions