Boston Latin School will hold a series of events on November 14, 15 and 16 as part of International Education Week. Programs will include: student forums, guest presentations and an opportunity to listen, learn and network with others interested in global learning and understanding.

Help us celebrate International Education Week by attending our partner forum on Tuesday November 15th - A gallery of local organizations committed to global education, travel, understanding and making connections. Space will be available for organizations that offer educational travel programs and opportunities to foster engagement in international affairs and cooperation with peoples of all nations, especially the connections between young people.

Location:  Boston Latin School, 78 Avenue Louis Pasteur, Boston, MA
Date:  15 November, 2016
Time:  2:15 - 4pm
Audience:  Boston Latin School faculty and students
Individual tables will be available for displaying materials highlighting your organization
